THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

Local News & Home Reading.
Published at the Post-office at Bloomfield as second-class matter.

Publication Office, Broad St., near Post Office.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Contributions and Advertisements should be sent to the Office as early in the week as possible, and not later than Thursday, 1 P. M., if needed for the current issue.

PRINTING!

Every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING done at short notice at the Office of THE CITIZEN.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Sign the anti-sewage factory petition. Copies are to be found at the Bloomfield P. O., the Glen Ridge P. O., Caldwell's store, Baldwin's store, Sheriff's store and Watessing depot.

The Essex Paper Company have closed their mills for several days on account of an extensive break in their machinery.

George S. Farnoff, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Boston, is spending a few days at his parents' residence, on Canal street.

Sign the petition.

Mr. C. S. Van Liew is spending his vacation at Mr. James Moore's. He has spent the last year between Tombstone, Arizona, and Nacozari, Sonora, Mexico, superintending the affairs of the San Pedro Mining Company. He has travelled over a thousand miles on a buckboard, through the centre of the region long infested by the Apaches under Geronimo, from whom he has had several narrow escapes.

Some people can never realize a danger till they see it. A proposed sewage factory is a threatening danger, though not visible to eye or perceptible to nose.
Sign the protest against it.

"Modern High Farming," a book by Mr. Francis Wyatt and published by G. F. Bartholomew, will prove interesting and valuable to all cultivators of the soil who wish to get the most from their ground. The work can be had at T. L.
Hugger's.

On Monday afternoon J. Adam Wissner, oil dealer, was about to go into the yard of Theodore S. Little, in Montclair, when he slipped upon a tomato skin which lay upon the sidewalk, throwing him violently to the ground, breaking his left arm in two places and injuring him otherwise about the body. The injured man is getting along as well as can be expected.

Let each one do what he can. At once sign the petition against sending hundreds of barrels of liquid filth into the town.

Library Hall, after a long summer vacation, is about to open. Harrigan's Hibernian Company of Irish and American Tourists are first on the boards.
See advertisement elsewhere for particulars, and look out for the advance parade of the Tourists of which the Millville, N.
J., Bulletin, said:

"Harrigan's Hibernians arrived in town this morning, and paraded the streets this noon. They have an excellent band and they made a fine appearance in their green coats. The drum major, with his various gymnastics with the musket, made our city officers stand in awe and admiration."

Tickets are to be secured at Vought Bros., opposite the P. O.

Think of it! The sewage and refuse from a town of ten thousand inhabitants pouring every day into Second River. Sign the petition against it.

Knox Lodge, No. 2342, Knights of Honor, are preparing to give an entertainment at Library Hall on the 20th, the proceeds of which are to be donated to the Charleston sufferers. For further particulars, see advertisement in next week's Citizen.

A lad named Eddie Lee purchased a pound of gunpowder Wednesday afternoon and accompanied by several boy companions retired to a quiet spot on Orange street to have some sport. A portion of the powder was poured upon the ground, and Lee was in the act of applying a match to it when Willie Johnson, one of the party, gave him a push and he fell over into the powder just as it exploded. Lee's face and hands were badly burned and lacerated.

Rev. Mr. Duffield is expected to return home from Point Pleasant to-day, but will not preach during this month.
Rev. Erskine N. White, D. D., of New York City, will occupy the pulpit of Westminster church to-morrow and on the succeeding Sabbath.

No such danger has threatened Bloomfield for a long time as that of the proposed sewage factory. Sign the petition against it.

Cooper Bros. will exhibit a collection of picture frames and metal back albums at the State Fair, at Waverly, next week.

The officers of the State Agricultural Society are active in putting on the finishing touches on the buildings on the Fair grounds. Everything will be in order on Monday morning for the reception of goods. The big fruit tent will be put up on Saturday, and the fruit and vegetable tables will be in place by 10 o'clock Monday. There is always a choice show of fruits, and those who have fine specimens of pears, peaches, apples and grapes should take a pride in showing them at the Fair. The entry books in this department will be kept open until 5 o'clock on Tuesday, the 14th inst. Persons having fine fruits and not knowing the names, will have a good opportunity to have them correctly named.

What's everybody's business is no-body's business. Make it your's individually to sign the petition.

Vicinity Notes.

MONTCLAIR.

A Prohibition meeting will be held on Monday, the 13th inst., at which Rev.
George H. Vihbert, of Boston, will speak.

The report of the Collector for the month of August, shows the total disbursements to be $14,828.80, with a balance on hand of $277.73.

The Township Committee have raised the compensation of the Assessor from $700 to $800, on account of the increased amount of work of that officer.

The Caldwell and Livingston Grangers will hold their second annual fair and exhibition on September 27th, 28th and 29th, in the Montclair Skating Rink.

The two days open lawn tennis tournament of the Montclair Tennis Club, finishes to-day. There are a large number of entries, including several well-known players, and the success of the tournament is assured.

Frederick Kunkle, the man who disappeared a few weeks ago and was supposed to have committed suicide on account of the non-arrival of some money from Germany, has been heard from, and is now at Hyde Park. No explanation of the cause of his leaving Montclair so suddenly has been given.

Wednesday afternoon funeral services took place at Simpson Methodist Church, Jersey City Heights, that add sadness to an incident of a year or two ago. The services in question were held over the remains of little nine-year-old Grace Van Gelder, who died on Sunday at Montclair. It was this little girl who said to her father one morning when he was leaving home for his office in New York: "Papa, will you be back soon?" The father made a playful reply to his favorite child, but from that day to this his family have never seen him. John A.
Van Gelder was the trusted teller of the Union National Bank in Wall Street. He disappeared in a mysterious manner the same day upon which his little daughter had asked him the question above quoted; and it was afterwards discovered that he had defaulted and absconded with a large amount of the bank's funds. What property he had was seized by the bank to make good a portion of their losses, and his stricken family moved to Montclair.

NEWARK.

Newark wore gala dress Monday, and business was almost entirely suspended; to give everybody an opportunity either to look at or to participate in the labor demonstration. Hundreds of buildings on the route of the procession were decked with flags and hung with bright colored bunting. Nearly all of the trades in Newark were represented in the long line, and each assembly carried at its head a handsome silken banner inscribed with the name and number of the assembly. Fully 15,000 men and several thousand women and girls participated in the parade. The estimated length of the main procession was about three miles, and while they were marching in close order those who desired to see the whole of it were compelled to stand on the sidewalk or sit in their windows for an hour and ten minutes. It was the largest daylight procession ever held in Newark.

Gov. Abbott, Mayor Haynes and city and county officials reviewed the parade from a platform at the City Hall. In addition to Caledonian Park, Union Park, just across Springfield avenue, was thrown open for the picnic festivities. There was music galore, as almost every division had a band, and those who could not find a band to engage, got a fife and drum corps. From 30,000 to 40,000 people crowded the two parks during the afternoon and evening. The great crowd was sober, good humored and orderly.

Speeches were made by Henry George, James Redpath and others.

Make it a point to sign the petition.

ORANGE.

The projected horticultural exhibition in this city has taken definite shape. It will be held in the East Orange Skating Rink, Harrison street, on November 9th and following days. At a meeting of a number of gentlemen interested in the exhibition, an organization was formed for the purpose of ensuring the success of the enterprise. The following officers were elected: President, J. R. Ritcher, Secretary, John Farr; Treasurer, T. H.
Spaulding; Chairman of Executive Committee, J. F. Knorr.

Thieves entered the yard of a residence on Oakwood avenue, occupied by a family named Fawcett, and stripped the clothes lines of the week's washing, which is valued at about $20.

A drove of sheep that were being driven from Jersey City to Mr. Albert Condit's slaughter-house, on Mount Pleasant avenue, between the First and Second Mountains, passed through Orange, yesterday afternoon, in charge of a man named John Hogan. Following behind the drove was a wagon, upon which were piled ten or a dozen of the sheep that had been overcome by the heat and had fallen by the roadside. These sheep were piled one on top of another, and at one street one fell off of the load and lodged on the axle, between the wheel and the wagon body. Several citizens at this point out and stopped the horse, and officers Cooper and Hoffman came up, extricated the animal from its unfortunate position and took the wagon with its load, with the driver, a young lad, to the Police Station. Here the sheep were turned loose in a lot adjoining the Police Station, but none of the animals were able to stand. The lad gave the name of the man by whom he was employed and a complaint was made against Hogan. An additional complaint was also made against him by Mr. Peter Dextelner, agent for the S. P. C. A.

EAST ORANGE.

The Ashland Hose Company held their annual chowder party, Wednesday evening, at their house, Main street. About 75 guests were present, including the members of the Township Committee, township officers, members of the East Orange fire companies, and citizens. A fine supper was served, and then speeches and songs followed until a late hour. On Monday evening Ashland Hose Company elected officers for the ensuing year.

The interests of the public schools in this township are now in the hands of district boards of trustees, composed of three members, who are elected one each year for a three years' term, at annual meetings of the voters in the several school districts. For some time the question of uniting these boards of trustees into one body, to be called the East Orange Board of Education, has been discussed. As the interests of the several schools are nearly identical, this proposition has been received with general favor.
The Ashland district trustees, however, decline to assist the movement until the wishes of their constituents can be expressed at a public meeting, which it is proposed to call.

EAST NEWARK.

The following contracts have been awarded for the work on the new church of the Holy Cross. For furnishing the dressed stone, Riley & Co., of Harrison, will receive $35,000; for mason work, Peter Boyle, of Harrison, will receive $25,000; for all carpenter work, Kirk & Co., of Newark, will receive $10,250.

BELLEVILLE.

The macadamizing of a part of Mill and Main streets, at the approach to the town from Washington avenue, has been completed.

The Belleville free bridge, which has been closed for repairs during the last two weeks, is now thrown open to travel.
A new solid steel track has been put down, and the bridge otherwise has been thoroughly overhauled.

NUTLEY.

Noteworthy improvements have recently been made at Nutley, a village in Franklin township, Essex county, between Avondale and Franklin stations, about five miles from Newark and two miles from Passaic City. It is a fine rolling country, hills and valleys and running streams being features of the village.
Through the efforts of public spirited citizens a beautiful stone station has been erected, flowers and shrubbery planted and the avenues graded in the vicinity of the railroad, making Nutley one of the most attractive places on the road. Water works have been established, a large spring of pure water being the source from which the supply is obtained.

NETHERWOOD.

Chief Dodd entered a complaint against Samuel V. Woodruff, proprietor of Hotel Netherwood, and Theodore Bounds, his barkeeper, for having violated the license ordinance by causing to be sold and selling lager beer without being licensed therefor, on August 9th last. The defendants appeared before the court with affidavits affirming that Mr. Woodruff had directed that no liquor be sold, and that Mr. Bounds had sold it on his own responsibility. The Court fined the latter $50, and Mr. Woodruff was fined $25.

CALDWELL.

Mr. A. A. Snyder, proprietor of the Caldwell House, gave to his guests, Wednesday, an old fashioned Rhode Island clam-bake. It was gotten up by the porter, George Taylor, an "old down Easter." It was held at "Charley Hollow Grove," and was a success in every way.

The proposal to erect a sewage factory on our borders is a serious matter.

A stitch in time saves nine. Sign the petition.
